THE PRODIGAL SON

Pastor's Message

"Father, I have sinned against heaven and you, and am not worthy of being called your son." Luke 15:21

In the Gospel of St. Luke, Chapter 15, Jesus tells three parables: (1) The parable of the lost sheep, which symbolizes Wandering. (2) The parable of the lost coin, which symbolizes Loss, and (3) The parable of the lost son, which symbolizes the Fall of mankind.

A man had two sons. The younger asked his father to give him his share of the estate because he wanted to pack all his belongings and go to another country to enjoy life. His father agreed to divide his wealth between his sons. The younger son took his share of the wealth and left his father's home to seek a happier life in a foreign country. He was happy. He didn't have to worry. He was wealthy, and he could spend his money to enjoy life. But this didn't last long.

About the time his money was gone, a great famine swept over the land, and he began to starve and there was no one to give him food. He persuaded a local farmer to hire him to feed his pigs. He was so hungry that even the pods he was feeding the pigs looked good to him. But no one gave him anything.

In the book of Deuteronomy Chapter 14, we read that according to Moses' law, pigs were unclean animals. This meant that they could not be eaten or used for sacrifices. And to protect themselves from contamination, Jews would not even touch them. For a Jew to accept feeding pigs was a great humiliation, and for this young man to eat food the pigs had touched was to be degraded beyond imagination. The younger son had truly sunk very low.

This young man finally came to his senses. He realized that he had sinned and was far away from home. He realized that he should return home. He repented and said to himself, "At my father's home even the hired men have food enough to spare, and here I am, dying of hunger! I will go home to my father and say, 'Father, I have sinned against both heaven and you, and am no longer worthy of being called your son. Please take me on as a hired man.'

ԱՆԱՌԱԿԻՆ

(Շար. 3-րդ էջէն)

Անառակ Որդիին հօրենական տունէն հեռանալը կը խորհրդանշէ մարդուն՝ Աստուծմէ հեռանալը: Իսկ հայրը մոռնալը՝ զԱստուած մոռնալը: Հօրենական տան մէջ վայելած խնամքը աստուածային շնորհի օրինակն է, եւ նոյն շնորհին յարգը չգիտնալը եղած է անոր անկման պատճառը, իսկ նոյն շնորհին յարգը վերստին ճանչնալը բաւական եղած է զինքը իւնած տեղէն վերականգնելու:

Անառակ Որդին իւնկաւ: Տակաւին ամէն օր երիտասարդներ կ'իյնան, որովհետեւ փորձանքը հմայիչ է եւ հրապոյրներ ունի: Սակայն եթէ զղջանք եւ վերադառնանք՝ Աստուած մեզ կ'ընդունի այնպէս՝ ինչպէս Անառակ Որդիին հայրը ընդունեց զինք, եւ մեզի կը հագցընէ փրկութեան պատմուճանը:

THE PRODIGAL SON

So he returned home to his father. And while he was still at a long distance away, his father saw him coming, and was filled with loving pity and ran, embraced him and kissed him.

There are still Prodigal Sons to this day. God's love is constant and waiting. He will search for us and give us opportunities to respond, but He does not force us to come to him because He gave us free will. Like the father, He waits patiently for us to come to our senses and repent.

Message from the Board of Trustees
By Varoujan Der Simonian, Chairman

"God put me on Earth to accomplish a certain number of things. Right now I'm so far behind that I will never die."

I found this statement written on the front of a sweater and a matching mug that I received once as a Christmas gift from my late chairman of the ATG Board, Dr. Arthur Hazarabedian. Besides cherishing the gifts for their sentimental value, from time to time, I wear the sweater to keep me warm while taking a walk. When a new person reads it for the first time, they smile and greet me with a genuine expression of delight on their face.

This interaction puts me in a contemplative mood: reflecting on the purpose of life and the role we need to play in our society in order to make a communal contribution in our lifetime. Many of you may share similar thoughts. Your passionate commitment and dedication toward the well-being of our church reflects these same feelings. We are however, concerned about our responsibilities and who would continue our work when we no longer are capable to serve. This is a valid concern.

Our faith and traditions are challenged by the fast moving socio-economic demands surrounding us. Furthermore, the multi-faceted faith interpretations and approaches that are presented and marketed to us through various means of communication are adding another dimension with which to cope in our efforts to prosper within the principles of our heritage. This situation is even harder on our younger generations that are facing these realities in their daily encounters.

We do not have the luxury of time on our hands to keep postponing the numerous tasks that are becoming more pressing as times goes by. Nor do we have the right not to take direct action to address them in a timely manner. We have missed educating our community at large on the principle values of our faith and traditions. This delay or lack of action has impacted our church significantly.

As we begin to take action, we may be overwhelmed by the amount of work ahead of us. Somehow, it may impact our comfort zone a bit. But, with specific tasks we will be able to overcome and as a result become even stronger than what we are now.

We all know that none of us are immortal except the Almighty. If we are called to lead, then, we do not have the right to procrastinate or shift our responsibilities to another person to address or be concerned about. It is time to act, and the burden to deliver is upon us.

THURSDAY MORNING BIBLE STUDY

By: Sophie Mekhitarian

With a nod from our Thursday morning Bible Study leader Sharon Williams, the team of Sharon Toroian and Sophia Mekhitarian set the wheels in motion to give Rosine Koundakjian a day to remember.

This was Thursday, January 31, 2013. The occasion: Rosine's last day with us. Rosine has been our Asdvadzashoontz (Bible) reader for the last couple of years. The Armenian version of the scriptures comes to life for us with its rich tapestry of expressions blended in with depth of color and meaning when Rosine reads. Her readings have inspired us to learn Armenian which our Dzaghik Aristakessian has so graciously taken on as our instructor.

As Armenian parties go, there's food a plenty. Members ushered in trays of goodies to a room ready for Valentine's Day. A birthday cake, tiara, rose cushion for Rosine, and a scepter all came into focus just as Arpy Kalfayan, her niece joined us.

With pictures and well-wishes from Der Hayr and office staff, we gave Rosine a send-off to San Carlos for happy times with her family. We expect to see Rosine next month. Thereafter, who knows, we may just caravan north to visit with memories to share and Armenian sourj to sip.

PASS IT ON... Submitted By: Krista Parnagian author unknown

STORY NUMBER ONE

Many years ago, Al Capone virtually owned Chicago. Capone wasn't famous for anything heroic. He was notorious for enmeshing the windy city in everything from bootlegged booze and prostitution to murder. Capone had a lawyer nicknamed "Easy Eddie." He was Capone's lawyer for a good reason. Eddie was very good! In fact, Eddie's skill at legal maneuvering kept Big Al out of jail for a long time. To show his appreciation, Capone paid him very well.

Not only was the money big, but Eddie got special dividends, as well. For instance, he and his family occupied a fenced-in mansion with live-in help and all of the conveniences of the day. The estate was so large that it filled an entire Chicago City block. Eddie lived the high life of the Chicago mob and gave little consideration to the atrocity that went on around him. Eddie did have one soft spot, however. He had a son that he loved dearly. Eddie saw to it that his young son had clothes, cars, and a good education. Nothing was withheld. Price was no object. And, despite his involvement with organized crime, Eddie even tried to teach him right from wrong. Eddie wanted his son to be a better man than he was. Yet, with all his wealth and influence, there were two things he couldn't give his son; he couldn't pass on a good name or a good example. One day, Easy Eddie reached a difficult decision. Easy Eddie wanted to rectify wrongs he had done. He decided he would go to the authorities and tell the truth about Al "Scarface" Capone, clean up his tarnished name, and offer his son some semblance of integrity. To do this, he would have to testify against The Mob, and he knew that the cost would be great. So, he testified. Within the year, Easy Eddie's life ended in a blaze of gunfire on a lonely Chicago Street ... But in his eyes, he had given his son the greatest gift he had to offer, at the greatest price he could ever pay. Police removed from his pockets a rosary, a crucifix, a religious medallion, and a poem clipped from a magazine. The poem read:

"The clock of life is wound but once, and no man has the power to tell just when the hands will stop, at late or early hour. Now is the only time you own. Live, love, toil with a will. Place no faith in time. For the clock may soon be still."

STORY NUMBER TWO

World War II produced many heroes. One such man was Lieutenant Commander Butch O'Hare. He was a fighter pilot assigned to the aircraft carrier Lexington in the South Pacific. One day his entire squadron was sent on a mission. After he was airborne, he looked at his fuel gauge and realized that someone had forgotten to top off his fuel tank. He would not have enough fuel to complete his mission and get back to his ship. His flight leader told him to return to the carrier. Reluctantly, he dropped out of formation and headed back to the fleet. As he was returning to the mother ship, he saw something that turned his blood cold; a squadron of Japanese aircraft was speeding its way toward the American fleet. The American fighters were gone on a sortie, and the fleet was all but defenseless. He couldn't reach his squadron and bring them back in time to save the fleet. Nor could he warn the fleet of the approaching danger. There was only one thing to do. He must somehow divert them from the fleet. Laying aside all thoughts of personal safety, he dove into the formation of Japanese planes. Wing-mounted 50 caliber's blazed as he charged in, attacking one surprised enemy plane and then another. Butch wove in and out of the now broken formation and fired at as many planes as possible until all his ammunition was finally spent. Undaunted, he continued the assault. He dove at the planes, trying to clip a wing or tail in hopes of damaging as many enemy planes as possible, rendering them unfit to fly. Finally, the exasperated Japanese squadron took off in another direction. Deeply relieved, Butch O'Hare and his tattered fighter limped back to the carrier. Upon arrival, he reported in and related the event surrounding his return. The film from the gun-camera mounted on his plane told the tale. It showed the extent of Butch's daring attempt to protect his fleet. He had, in fact, destroyed five enemy aircraft. This took place on February 20, 1942, and for that action Butch became the Navy's first Ace of W.W.II, and the first Naval Aviator to win the Medal of Honor. A year later Butch was killed in aerial combat at the age of 29. His hometown would not allow the memory of this WW II hero to fade, and today, O'Hare Airport in Chicago is named in tribute to the courage of this great man. So, the next time you find yourself at O'Hare International, give some thought to visiting Butch's memorial displaying his statue and his Medal of Honor. It's located between Terminals 1 and 2.

SO WHAT DO THESE TWO STORIES HAVE TO DO WITH EACH OTHER? Butch O'Hare was "Easy Eddie's" son.

Message: Christ offers each of us redemption. We are to ponder on how we can rectify some of the mistakes we make.

Second Space Play

December has come and gone yet acknowledgements regarding the Christian Ed play at Second Space did not appear in our Voice, therefore, let's recap a bit as our Patty Torosian with assistance from Kathy Stockdale, Leslie Antazo, Vars, Gaston, Barbara Mortanian and so many other contributors like the Margos Gooboian family members and all the silent auction contributors who worked many hours planning and preparing for the event went unnoticed. This was Patty's ninetieth year heading the show and what a show she puts on. Kudos to Patty and friends for an enjoyable evening in placing the Christian Ed treasury back in the black.
