On Sunday, May 8, 2022, Holy Trinity Armenian Apostolic Church held its Annual Mother's Day Luncheon hosted by the Holy Trinity Youth Group and underwritten by Ms. Patricia Sevoian. This tradition dates back 64 years when we honor one of our church mothers as the mother of the year. For several years now, we have also given recognition to those who are not mothers; however, they are like mothers in the love and dedication they provide within our church.

This year, our honoree was Mrs. Ruby Baladjanian who since from a very young age has been a huge part of our church. Ruby is a devoted parishioner of our church as she has been part of many committees such as being the treasurer of the Ladies' Guild, a member of the catering, mas, and cheese boreg committees. Additionally, Ruby was on the church Nominating Committee many times. Our three Honorary Mothers recognized were Mrs. Mary Ekmalian, Ms. Jane Knar Lanas, and Ms. Patty Torosian. These individuals work tirelessly in helping the church in various ways and in many capacities. In recognition, these wonderful individuals received a plaque and flowers.

Our Mistress of Ceremony was Ms. Sevana Vassilian. After giving us a reflection of the motherly love she experiences, Sevana did an outstanding job progressing the program which began with an opening prayer by the Very Rev. Fr. Ashod Khachadourian. As Sevana recognized our past mothers of the year, Youth Group members presented them with flower bouquets.

Next, everyone enjoyed "Pasta with meatballs" prepared by two of our own, Chef Shant Guzelian and Ani Ekezyan, both of whom are Youth Group members. The Youth not only helped in making chefs in making the meal, but throughout the program, they were serving and assisting in many ways.

Lunch was followed by three dance performances by the Armenian Dance Group of Fresno, directed by Ms. Karina Hovhannisyian. The luncheon guests were presented three dances, Artsakhi Akhchigner, Uzundara, and a Shourch Bar.

Following the amazing lunch, Sevana introduced our Keynote Speaker, Gia Kazarian, daughter of Vernon and Carol Hovannisian. Gia has special ties to our church as her grandparents (Kaspar and Siroon Hovannisian), her parents plus herself were all married in our church and all the family milestone events have occurred at Holy Trinity. Her topic was "The Juggle is Real: Managing Motherhood", and she explained 10 Leadership and Motherhood Life Skills" to help deal with the juggle.

Final remarks were made by our Board Chair Mr. Bill Sahatdjian. We are grateful to all of the mothers of our church for the work and effort they put into making sure things run smoothly in the lives of their children. Their love, care, commitment, and sacrifices make our lives much easier.

Congratulations to Mrs. Ruby Baladjanian for being chosen the 2022 Holy Trinity Armenian Church Mother of the Year. We also congratulate Mrs. Mary Ekmalian, Ms. Jane Knar Lanas, and Ms. Patty Torosian. God bless these wonderful ladies and all our mothers in our church. Very Rev. Fr. Ashod Khachadourian gave the closing prayer to conclude the event.

Scars for Life

Some years ago on a hot summer day in south Florida, a little boy decided to go for a swim in the old swimming hole behind his house. In a hurry to dive into the cool water, he ran out the back door, leaving behind his shoes, socks, and shirt as he went. He flew into the water, not realizing that as he swam toward the middle of the lake, an alligator was swimming toward the shore.

His mother was in the house, and as she looked out the window she saw the two as they got closer and closer together. In utter fear, she ran toward the water, yelling to her son as loudly as she could. Hearing her voice, the little boy became alarmed and made a U-turn to swim to his mother, but it was too late. Just as he reached her, the alligator reached him.

From the dock, the mother grabbed her little boy by the arms just as the alligator snatched his legs. That began an incredible tug of war between the two. The alligator was much stronger than the mother, but the mother was much too passionate to let go. A farmer happened to drive by, heard her screams, raced from his truck, took aim and shot the alligator. Remarkably, after weeks and weeks in the hospital, the little boy survived. His legs were extremely scarred by the vicious attack of the animal. And, on his arms were deep scratches where his mother's fingernails dug into his flesh in her effort to hang on to the son she loved.

The newspaper reporter who interviewed the boy after the trauma asked if he would show him his scars. The boy lifted his pant legs. And then, with obvious pride, he said to the reporter, "But look at my arms. I have great scars on my arms too. I have them because my mom wouldn't let go." You and I can identify with that little boy too. We all have scars. No, not from an alligator, or anything quite so dramatic, but the scars of a painful past. Some of those scars are unsightly and have caused us deep regret. But, some wounds are because God has refused to let go.

Message: In the midst of your struggle, He's been there holding on to you. The scripture teaches that God loves you. You are a child of God. He wants to protect you and provide for you in every way. But sometimes we foolishly wade into dangerous situations. The swimming hole of life is filled with peril – and we forget that the enemy is waiting to attack. That's when the tug of war begins – and if you have the scars of His love on your arms be, very, very grateful. He did not and will not let you go.

Greetings! The summer months are here. Hopefully you and your families are doing well.

The Ladies Guild' Members are busy, as always. Our May Dinner Meeting was hosted by Madeline Kachadoorian, Elaine Hanoian, Evelyn Hamamjian, Linda Kaloostian, Patty Torosian, Barbara Mortanian, Rosie Bedrosian and Kathy Bedrosian. It had a fiesta theme in honor of Cinco de Mayo.

At the meeting a moment of silence was held in honor of Sue Kiljian, a longtime Ladies' Guild Member who recently passed away.

Guild President, Mary Ekmalian and Anoush Chamlian, spoke about how students, parents and staff from the Chamlian Armenian School, recently visited Holy Trinity, while on a field trip from Southern California. The Ladies' Guild catered a box lunch for the group.

We are excited to inform you that our Fall Bazaar will be returning this October. It's set for October 14th. If you would like to help, we'd love the support. Contact Barbara Mortanian to join a committee.

Remember, Saturday, November 19th the Ladies' Guild is hosting a Christmas Gala. You won't want to miss this special event.

Our next meeting is set for Wednesday, June 8th at 5:30 p.m. It's a joint event with the Men's Society and is hosted by Patty Torosian in memory of her parents and brother. RSVP to Patty Torosian at 559-591-2217 or email ptorosian559@gmail.com

We hope to see you there!

Where were you in the fall of 1950 when the very first Holy Trinity Food Bazaar was held? Well, speaking for myself, I wasn't born yet. Now, after a two-year hiatus, the Ladies' Guild is anxious and busy preparing for the 70th community wide and much anticipated Food Bazaar. Please save the date, October 14. During the late summer months we will begin calling for your help in baking, rolling yalanchi, making kufta and other tasty baked and frozen goods.

For now, you can definitely help by saving your wide-mouth quart and 8 oz. Mason jars for tourshi and jams. Bring them to the office or drop them off anytime you are at church. You can leave them in the kitchen or with Nazik or Diana in the office.

Another, and most appreciated way to help, would be to make a monetary donation to help offset the cost of the many expenses incurred for the Bazaar. As you can see by the chart below, we have attempted to break down the total cost into more manageable units. For example; a $500 donation could be broken down into 3 meat units, 1 baking, 1 cheese, 2 publicity and 1 salad unit, or you can leave it up to the committee to decide how best to allot your contribution. Your donation dollars are really important and just as valued as the many hours invested by our dedicated and faithful volunteers.

The Hidden Map

Dear Friends,

I am gratified to share that the Armenian story will be in the national spotlight on PBS (Public Broadcasting Service) beginning June 2022. PBS has scheduled approximately 1,000 broadcasts of the documentary, The Hidden Map, across the country, primarily during the week of June 6-13.

The Hidden Map* takes viewers deep into the ancestral Armenian homeland, where a chance meeting between an Armenian-American granddaughter of genocide survivors and a Scottish explorer leads to a joint odyssey beneath the surface of modern-day Turkey, uncovering buried secrets and the hidden map.
