On Saturday evening, August 13, 2022, His Holiness Aram I presided over the Feast of the Assumption in Bikfaya - Lebanon. The Divine Liturgy (Badarak) was celebrated by Archbishop Gomidas Ohanian. Hundreds of faithful were present. Toward the end of the Divine Liturgy (Badarak), blessing of the grapes and Offering (Harissa Madagh) was conducted by His Holiness.

In his message, His Holiness, Aram I stressed that as Armenian faithful, it is time for us to pray and ask for the intercession of the Holy Virgin for the restoration of world peace and unity among Armenians, so that our lives are filled with health, joy and success.

At the end, people received the Holy Communion and took the blessed grapes and offering with them

We are so glad that we are now able to have our traditional events and are very happy to inform you that in the July and August months, we had three very successful events.

The first of these was our Annual Vacation Bible School (VBS). This year we held VBS from July 18 through July 22. Approximately 50 students enrolled and had a wonderful time. The theme of this year's VBS was "Discovery on Adventure Island." On the first day of VBS, the theme was creation; on the second day, the theme was Moses and the Burning Bush; on the third day, the theme was Faith; on the fourth day, the theme was the lost parable, then on the last and fifth day, the theme was Mary at the Tomb. We had crafts; we had science; we had snacks; and, we had a station for destination imagination. This year, we were very fortunate to get a tour of our neighbor, Valley Lahvosh Baking Company, and we are very grateful to Agnes who really went over and beyond for our students. On the last day of VBS, as we do customarily, we had Pizza and the famous silly string fight. We are also grateful to Jasmina Kalanjian and her committee for always doing their best in making our Vacation Bible School each year such a success.

On Saturday, August 6, our Havana Under Moonlight event was a huge success. We thank Brent Sarabian and his committee members for a wonderful job they did in putting this event on. The following is a message from Brent:

On behalf of the Holy Trinity Armenian Apostolic Church, a special thank you goes out to everyone who helped sponsor and donate towards our recent Havana Under Moonlight event. It was such a joy to see our church and Armenian community together for the evening, all made possible thanks to your generosity. With the success of this event, we hope to make this an annual tradition and look forward to seeing you at Moonlight 2023!

The following day, Sunday August 7, we held our Grape Blessing Festival. In many ways, it was nice to hold this event right here on our church premises. The "Blessing of the Grapes" was done in the Church sanctuary after the Liturgy (Badarak). Afterward, the grapes were handed out to the faithful. Then, everyone who came enjoyed food, music, dancing, and simply just mingling. We thank Levon Baladjanian who has spearheaded the committee for this event for many many years. We also thank the countless volunteers who make this event, not only such a success, but super fun to be part of. A separate article will be published in the next month's Voice.

Keep cool in these hot summer months. It will be over soon. See you in church.

A Cry Against Cruelty

St. Telemachus was a saintly ascetic of Asia Minor in present day Turkey. Once, during his prayer, he received a divine inspiration to travel to Rome and preach the gospel. When he reached Rome, the citizens were celebrating the victory of Rome over the Goths. Moving along with the marching crowd, he reached the colosseum in Rome on 1st January, 404 A.D. He remembered the countless Christian martyrs who were killed and eaten by hungry lions in the colosseum during the period of religious persecution in Rome. The colosseum remained as a place for the public exhibition of cruel duels. Gladiatorial fights were common in the Roman amphitheater.

The gladiators' fight to amuse the crowd was about to begin. Two armed gladiators bowed before Emperor Honorius. They vowed to fight till one of them died. They approached each other for the fierce combat. Seeing the gruesome scene, Telemachus stood up from his seat in the gallery and cried aloud, "In the name of Christ, stop this killing." The people laughed at him and said he was mad. But he jumped over the wall and sprang down into the arena. He stood between the combatant gladiators and repeated his request at the top of his voice. The audience became violent and threw stones at Telemachus, cursing him for interrupting their savage entertainment. The stones rained upon the saint from the furious spectators. He was stabbed to death by one of the gladiators.

There was a solemn silence as the audience witnessed the tragic death. The scene opened the eyes of the spectators and turned their hearts. They realized the cruelty of their conduct and left the gallery silently, one by one. The last words of Telemachus echoed in the colosseum. The emperor, Honorius was greatly moved and left his seat in silence. The gladiators saw the empty gallery and stopped the fight.

Influenced by the saint's sacrifice, the emperor soon issued a proclamation banning all gladiatorial fights and cruel entertainments involving murder of men. That was the end of killing in the Roman colosseum, but Telemachus had to sacrifice his life to achieve this great victory.

Telemachus was canonized as a saint for his heroic stance and sacrifice for protecting the dignity of life. "Happy are those who work for peace; God will call them His children" {Matthew 5: 7}. Jesus taught us, "My commandment is this: love one another, just as I love you. The greatest love a person can have for his friends is to give his life for them" {John 15: 12, 13}. St. John reminds us, "My children, our love should not be just words and talk; it must be true love, which shows itself in action" {1 John 3:18}.

The 70th Annual Food Bazaar at Holy Trinity is only a few weeks away. By now you should have received the Bazaar mailing flyers and also included four, very bright orange 50/50 Cash Raffle tickets. One half of the monies collected will be divided among 10 prize winners. Increase your chances of winning by buying more chances. Tickets will be available for purchase on Sundays at coffee hour or from the church office during the week.

Once again, there are opportunities to have your businesses promoted, congratulate, honor, recognize or memorialize loved ones or a special occasion on our event placemats that fill the large social hall on the day of the Bazaar. This year we will again showcase our placemat supporters by displaying their business cards and or your personal messages on the two television monitors in the small social hall as an added bonus to our devoted and new placemat donors.

Did we mention our ladies are busy making, kufta, choreg, gatah, tourshi, simit, jams and jellies, yalanchi, cheese berags, and more? Yes, there remains much to do to ensure that we have a great Bazaar as has been the tradition for the past 69 years. Please say “yes” when you receive a phone call, text or e-mail from one of the committee members or even better yet, you can call the office to volunteer yourself. To do so it’s as easy as making a phone call to our church volunteer coordinator, the always friendly, Diana Shirin in the church office 559-486-1141. These events that we all enjoy attending don’t just happen. They require lots of man and woman power to carry out, so please think about being one of the many needed volunteers that work together in fellowship and fun. It’s very rewarding and fulfilling to be a volunteer. During the busy pre Bazaar week, much help is needed.

We are thrilled to welcome back Lucy’s (Lucille Gahvejian) Treasures. Lucille’s daughters want to honor their mother by reviving a favorite area of the Bazaar. The girls are ready to welcome your gently used, saleable treasures. Items of special interest would be interior and garden decorator items, glassware, ceramics, pottery, vases, china, serving pieces, silver, pillows, statues, jewelry, vintage clothing, pictures, books, handmade items, and tasteful souvenirs from travels and artifacts from Armenia. Ask your relatives and friends to search for the same. All donations will be discriminately selected so that all items are of similar, estate quality. Contact Leslee at 559-260-4718 to arrange drop off or pick up beginning on September 1 through October 1. Recalling a quote from Lucille, “This will be an upscale estate sale experience and not a yard sale table.”

During the Bazaar make sure you plan time to chat with the author of three charming hardbound children’s books. Narine Minasyan will have copies of her delightful books, Barev, Bari Akhorjak and Jan Pari available for purchase individually or bundled. They can be personally signed upon request and individually personalized for your children, grandchildren, nieces and nephews. They’re perfect for birthday or holiday gifting. Did I mention that the illustrations are adorable?

BAZAAR NEWS, (Continued)

As you can see, the donation chart has had lots of activity since it was originally posted in June. The Bazaar committee would like to thank and acknowledge the most recent generous financial donations received from Beverlee Bargamian, Flora Esraelian, Kathy Gambero, Patricia Hansen, Angel Kechichian Kellee Ramer, Pat Sevoian, Christine Datian in honor of her mother, Alice Vartanian, Jackie Hollingsworth, Leslee Minas and Lisa Moody in memory of their parents Jack and Lucille Gahvejian. We are extremely grateful for and appreciate each and every contribution. All assistance in this way is a very helpful gesture that involves you and supports those who do the physical work. Please consider sending in your donation so that the last column will become all zeroes. Donations are graciously accepted in any amount.
