The representatives of the Pan-Diasporan Organizations Hold a Meeting in the Catholicosate

On Wednesday September 14, 2022, following the Azerbaijani aggression against Armenia, His Holiness Aram I, Catholicos of the Holy See of Cilicia, invited all the representatives of the Armenian churches, organizations and political parties to the Catholicosate and held a meeting. During the meeting His Holiness stated that “The national resistance is imperative.”

During the meeting, they condemned the Azeri aggression and stated that as the children of the Armenian nation, it is our duty to resist this aggression and protect the sovereign land of Armenia, by acting, raising our voices, and warning the world of this incident. They also stated that the Motherland-Diaspora unity is much more imperative than ever, especially during these hard times and days.

Thank You!

Greetings Voice readers! We're so excited that it's October because that means it's time for our Fall Bazaar! That's right. After a two year in-person hiatus, our annual food extravaganza is returning. We can't wait to see you on October 14th. Our ladies are busy prepping food items for the Country Store. Don't miss it!

Tuesday, October 4th is our next Guild Dinner Meeting. It's the last one before we go back to lunch meetings.

Our Italian themed September dinner was delicious. Thank you Mary Belemjian and company for all your hard work in the kitchen and beyond.

Next month is our Christmas Gala. It's happening November 19th. The event is hosted by the KSEE24 anchor team of Stefani Booroojian and Alexan Balekian. We are honored that they are donating their time to help make our event special. The gala will feature a Christmas Tree auction, a meal catered by Pardini's and dancing, not to mention Valet Parking. A great way to kick-off the holiday season!

Have a blessed month. We hope to see you all at the Bazaar!

So.....with just a few days to go before the doors open at 10 a.m. on Friday, October 14th for the 70th annual Food Bazaar at Holy Trinity the Guild ladies are hustling and bustling between the two social halls, the kitchen, the freezers, the pantry closets, the basement and other storage areas. Starting in June, and most definitely following the Grape Blessing Festival, Ladies' Guild chairlady, Mary Ekmalian geared up her committee with regular meetings and hasn't missed a beat in the demanding position of Bazaar chair. Beverlee Bargamian and co kufta queen, Madeline Katchadoorian, along with several talented volunteers shaped over 80 dozen and are ready for Bazaar day purchases. Jane Knar finished 6 large trays of khadayiff for our a la carte table and she has also made several jars of fig jam. Thanks to Margo Conkle for providing lots of her organic figs. Ruby Baladjanian has been busy too, with her apricot and berry jams and securing the coveted additional parking spaces. We thank dear Patty Torosian who finds time to teach Sunday school and made time to shop, prep and organize the majority of the Bazaar baking, and also helped Mary Ekmalian on the cheese berag prep team. Mary E. will also have some sugar free pastries available for purchase at the Country Store. Our other Mary, Mary Belemjian, has been baking coffee breads and helping with any and all needs on bake days. Linda Kaloostian's persimmon cookies will be gone before noon so get to the Country Store as soon as you arrive. Patty Torosian will take charge of the busy kitchen crew all day on the day of the Bazaar and will have her shakar lokhum cookies and napoleons ready for sale as well. Sisters Jackie Hollingsworth, Leslee Minas, Lisa Moody have been busy taking inventory of the many great finds they will display and sell at Lucy's Treasures. They have already made a few presales of some of the coveted items. Christine Darmanian, Evelyn Hamamjian and Linda Kaloostian will prep the yalanchi filling on Sunday October 9. Calling all yalanchi wrappers to be at church on Monday, October 10 at 9:30 ready to "wrap and roll." Sossie Djabrayan organized her cheerful food line crews ready to scoop and smile while hopefully serving 1 more than 700 meals. Can't forget the very reliable and responsible Diana Shirin who has been keeping all the incoming mail, ticket monies, donations, placemat ads, meal pre orders and questions answered. She is the quiet, calm, outstanding force behind the scenes and does so much effortlessly. Please make sure to notice and to patronize the donors who have taken out placemat ads for the successful fundraiser managed by Diana. All ads can be viewed on the TV screens in the small hall.

Without Margo Conkle and her perceptive insight, our many publicity and event signs might not have been strategically placed and replacements ordered and made by Arlen Tanielian.

Thanks to each and every one of you whose names are too numerous to mention who willingly answered our calls and volunteered to be part of the baking, pickling, packaging, wrapping, rolling, working and planning during the VERY busy pre Bazaar month. The Holy Trinity Ladies' Guild is thankful and appreciative of the thousands of hours of volunteer time given.

BAZAAR NEWS, (Continued)

Please drop in and stay for a while any time during the week of October 10-13 as we will be running in all directions setting up, arranging tables, packaging and labeling. We also need the not so glamorous help on October 14th to clear tables, set placemats, be food runners, and the very important task of breaking down, packing and cleaning up. Please call us at 559-486-1141, if we haven't already contacted you!

There will be a variety of vendors with their tasty and clever wares plus Narine Minasyan author of 3 children's books who will sell and autograph her charming books, perfect for holiday and birthday gift giving. All intended to definitely complement the Bazaar activities not to forget all the socializing and reunions with friends.

Our 50/50 cash raffle ticket sales are going well. If you haven't sent in your bright orange ticket stubs, it's not too late to do so. You can even buy extra chances at coffee hour on Sundays, from the church office during the week or even on Friday, October 14 to increase your chances of winning one of the 10 (evenly divided) cash prizes.

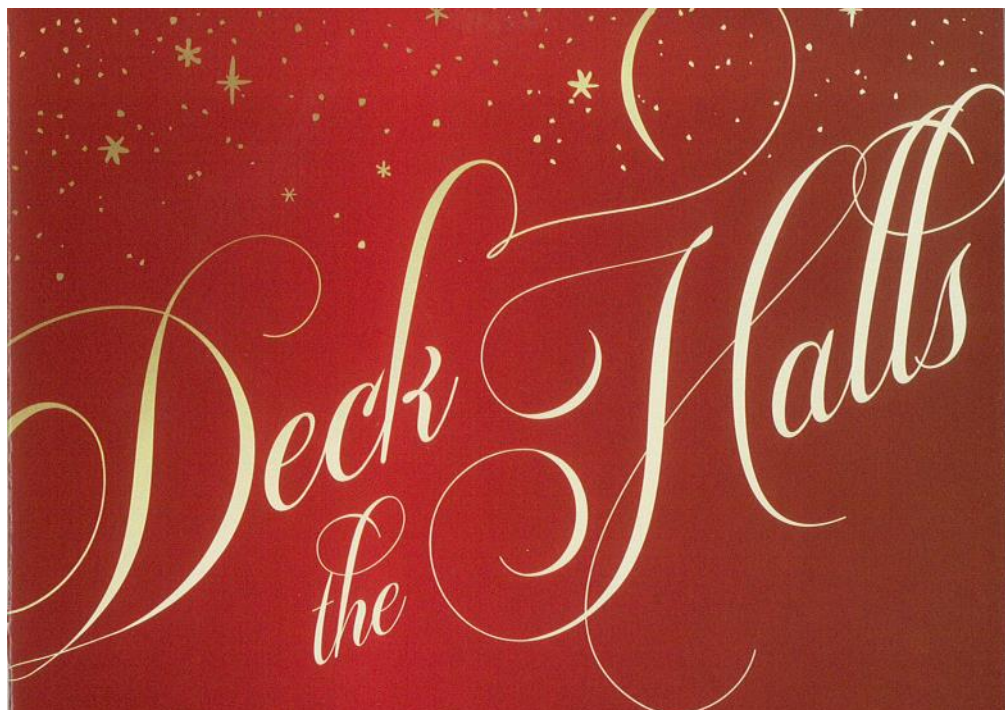

As has been the tradition, we will host residents from the California Armenian Home for lunch and the residents of the Vineyard have been notified as well, with the option to attend on their own.

Many thanks and much appreciation to Joan Azarian, Richard Bedoian, Larry and Joan Bedrosian, Cherye Caire, Gerald and Margo Conkle, Scott and Linda Jura, Grace Kazarian, Marilyn Mc Mains, Aram and Alice Michigan, Virginia Murachanian and Larry and Karen Sebilian for their recent monetary donations as reflected on the updated chart below. With these and previous generous donations we have fulfilled the donations for cheese, pilaf, salad and yalanchi

2226 Ventura Avenue | Fresno, California | Black Tie Optional

September 11 was the first day of Sunday School for the 2022-23 school year and we are off to a great start! Thank you parents and families for sending your wonderful children to Sunday School each Sunday. We have an exciting year planned for our students!

On the first day of Sunday School, our students and staff took communion in church as we celebrated the Exaltation of the Holy Cross. On September 18, during our morning assembly, our students united in prayer and prayed for our brothers and sisters in Armenia and Artsakh. On September 25, our students learned our church sharagans. Our students will continue to learn our sacred hymns throughout the year and will sing sharagans in our church on special occasions. Our Bible-centered curriculum, deacon's messages, children's messages in church, and our assemblies teach our students of our church Badarak, traditions and feasts. Our music education program teaches our students the vocal performance and meaning of our church sharagans (hymns). We also have our student incentive Bible Bucks program where students can collect Bible Bucks and redeem them for some cool prizes.

We are currently planning an exciting Harvest Party that will take place on Saturday, October 29. Save that date for an evening of fun and fellowship!

Our Sunday School enrollment is currently at 86 students and our goal is to increase our enrollment to at least 100 students. Please help us reach our goal. If you haven't already done so, please enroll your student in Sunday School. We have open enrollment throughout the school year.

The Matchless Pearl

David Morse, American missionary to India, became great friends there with the pearl diver, Rambhau. Many an evening he spent in Rambhau's cabin reading to him from the Bible, and explaining to him God's way of salvation. Rambhau enjoyed listening to the word of God, but whenever the missionary tried to get Rambhau to accept Christ as his savior he would shake his head and reply, "Your Christian way to heaven is too easy for me! I cannot accept it. If ever I should find admittance to heaven in that manner I would feel like a pauper there... like a beggar who has been let in out of pity. I may be proud, but I want to deserve, I want to earn my place in heaven — and so I am going to work for it."

Nothing the missionary could say seemed to have any effect on Rambhau's decision, and so quite a few years slipped by. One evening, however, the missionary heard a knock on his door, and on going to open it he found Rambhau there. "Come in, dear friend," said Morse. "No," said the pearl diver. "I want you to come with me to my house, Sahib, for a short time. I have something to show you. Please do not say 'No'."

"Of course I'll come," replied the missionary. As they neared his house, Rambhau said: "In a week's time I start working for my place in heaven; I am leaving for Delhi, and I am going there on my knees."

"Man, you are crazy! It's nine hundred miles to Delhi, and the skin will break on your knees, and you will have blood-poisoning or leprosy before you get to Bombay."

"No, I must get to Delhi," affirmed Rambhau, "and the immortals will reward me for it! The suffering will be sweet, for it will purchase heaven for me!"

"Rambhau, my friend, you can't. How can I bear you to do it, when Jesus Christ has suffered and died to purchase heaven for you!"

But the old man could not be moved. "You are my dearest friend on earth, Sahib Morse. Through all these years you have stood by me in sickness, you have been sometimes my only friend. But even you cannot turn me from my desire to purchase eternal bliss...I must go to Delhi!" Inside the hut Morse was seated in the very chair Rambhau had specially built for him, where on so many occasions he had read to him the Bible. Rambhau left the room to return soon with a small but heavy strongbox. "I have had this box for years," said he, "and I keep only one thing in it. Now I will tell you about it, Sahib Morse. I once had a son..."

"A son! Why, Rambhau, you have never before said a word about him!"

"No, Sahib, I couldn't." Even as he spoke the diver's eyes were moistened.

"Now I must tell you, for soon I will leave, and who knows whether I shall ever return? My son was a diver too. He was the best pearl diver on the Coast of India. He had the swiftest dive, the keenest eye, the strongest arm, the longest breath of any man who ever sought for pearls.

PASS IT ON, Con't

What joy he brought to me! Most pearls, as you know, have some defect or blemish only the expert can discern, but my boy always dreamed of finding the 'perfect' pearl – one beyond all that was ever found. One day he found it! But even when he saw it, he had been under water too long... That pearl cost him his life, for he died soon after." The old pearl diver bowed his head. For a moment his whole body shook, but there was no sound. "All these years," he continued, "I have kept this pearl – but now I am going, not to return, and to you, my best friend, I am giving my pearl."

The old man worked the combination on the strongbox and drew from it a carefully wrapped package. Gently opening the cotton, he picked up a mammoth pearl and placed it in the hand of the missionary. It was one of the largest pearls ever found off the coast of India, and glowed with a luster and brilliance never seen in cultured pearls. It would have brought a fabulous sum in any market. For a moment the missionary was speechless and gazed with awe. "Rambhau! What a pearl!"

"That pearl, Sahib, is perfect," replied the Indian quietly. The missionary looked up quickly with a new thought: Was not this the very opportunity and occasion he had prayed for – to make Rambhau understand the value of Christ's sacrifice? So he said, designedly, "Rambhau, this is a wonderful pearl, an amazing pearl. Let me buy it. I would give you ten thousand dollars for it."

"Sahib! What do you mean?"

"Well, I will give you fifteen thousand dollars for it, or if it takes more... I will work for it."

"Sahib," said Rambhau, stiffening his whole body, "this pearl is beyond price. No man in all the world has money enough to pay what this pearl is worth to me. On the market a million dollars could not buy it. I will not sell it to you. You may only have it as a gift."
