His name is Bill. He has wild hair, wears a t-shirt with holes in it, jeans and no shoes. This was his wardrobe for his entire four years of college. He is brilliant. Kind of esoteric and very, very bright. He became a Christian recently while attending college.

Across the street from the campus is a well-dressed, very conservative Christian church. One day Bill decides to go there. He walks in with no shoes, jeans, his t-shirt, and wild hair. The church service had already started, so Bill starts down the aisle looking for a seat.

The church is completely packed and Bill can't find a seat. By now people are really looking a bit uncomfortable, but no one says anything. He gets closer and closer and closer to the pulpit, and when he realizes there are no seats, he just squats down right on the carpet. Although perfectly acceptable behavior at a college fellowship, this had never happened in this church before!

By now the people are really uptight, and the tension in the air is thick. About this time, the minister realizes that from way at the back of the church, an elder is slowly making his way toward Bill. Now the elder is in his eighties, has silver-gray hair, and a three-piece suit. A godly Christian man, very elegant, very dignified, very courtly. He walks with a cane, and as he starts walking toward this boy, everyone is saying to themselves that you can't blame him for what he's going to do. How can you expect a man of his age and of his background to understand some college kid on the floor? It takes a long time for the man to reach the boy. The church is utterly silent except for the clicking of the man's cane.

All eyes are focused on him. You can't even hear anyone breathing. The minister can't even preach the sermon until the elder does what he has to do. And now they see this elderly man drop his cane on the floor. With great difficulty he lowers himself and sits down next to Bill and worships with him so he won't be alone.

Everyone chokes up with emotion. When the minister gains control, he says, "What I'm about to preach, you will never remember. What you have just seen, you will never forget. Be careful how you live. You may be the only bible some people will ever read."

Message: In the same way, let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven. Matthew 5:16

We are extremely thankful to each and every one of our wonderful volunteers who are too numerous to mention for all of their tireless efforts in orchestrating yet another monumental event for our beloved Holy Trinity church. You know who you are, and we thank you profusely. Whether you spent the bazaar day in the kitchen, at the BBQ pits, watching the ovens and roasters, making salad, helping shoppers with baked and frozen foods, making Armenian coffee, selling water or soda, being a cashier or were a serving or an “a la carte” lady, your efforts were noted, appreciated and we are grateful for your service and countless hours of help in making this 70th Annual Food Bazaar a success. Our humble and most sincere thanks to ALL of you!! We must also thank and appreciate our faithful shoppers, who year after year, fill their carts, bags and boxes with goodies for the holiday season. Special thanks to Cherye Caire who beautifully arranged all the shopping and dining tables in festive holiday décor and for the donation of pumpkins by the Sarabian families.

Luci’s Treasures proved to be the hit that organizers, Lisa, Leslee and Jacki anticipated, with lots of activity, interesting items and excellent sales. Many thanks to everyone who contributed items that aroused the curiosity of many shoppers.

The lucky ten 50/50 cash raffle winners were; Vahak Arslanian, Karoun Boyadjian, D. Buchaklian, Armand Gougasian, Skip Kachadoorian, George Mardikian, Lillian Mardikian, Patti Ourlian, Carol Sadoian-Meisner and Marshall Torigian. Each should have received a $175.00 check in the mail. Thanks to all who participated. You are all winners to us.

We can’t forget to thank all the families and businesses for their placemat sponsorship donations. The television monitor in the small social hall looped all the business cards and personal messages throughout the morning, during lunch and in the afternoon. Please thank and patronize our church supporters when you are shopping and doing business in the future.

Forty-one Voice recipients read our request and responded with their very generous pre bazaar donations toward the purchase of meat, rice, baking and packaging supplies, salad fixings, cheese, publicity and yalanchi ingredients in the amount of $7640. Additional donors to help with the Bazaar expenses during the month of October were, Janice and Les Emerzian, Kathy Gambero (again), The Meat Market, Jessie Rizzi, Satenig and Varoujan Kassabian, Armine Shishmanian and another very generous donor who has requested to remain anonymous.

Wow! It's already November. Where does the time go? 2023 is almost upon us.

A big thank you to everyone who made our Bazaar a huge success. Mary Ekmalian, Barbara Mortanian, and Patty Torosian did a great job chairing the event. So many of our guild members played a vital role: from preparation, to kitchen and line crews to ticket takers and more. THANK YOU.

As always the Bake Sale was a hit. Everyone who purchased goodies, thank you!

This month our monthly meetings switch from dinners to luncheons. On Tuesday, November 8th, join us for Susie Parnagian's annual Traditional Thanksgiving feast! It's a favorite. Tickets are $15. You can RSVP by calling Patty Torosian at 559-281-6863.

Not only is November 8th Election Day in the United States, it's also Election Day for the Ladies' Guild. The election of our 2023 executive team will take place.

We hope you plan to join us for Deck the Halls. Our Christmas Gala is happening November 19th. This fantastic event is hosted by KSEE24 anchor team of Stefani Booroajian and Alexan Balekian. The gala will feature a Christmas Tree auction, a meal catered by Pardini's, dancing and a silent auction featuring 100 donated items! A great way to kick-off the holiday season!

On behalf of the Ladies' Guild, have a healthy and fantastic Thanksgiving.

Thank you Stephanie Caprelian for beautifying our front entrance with flowers and mulch.

Sunday School News We have great news! Our enrollment is currently at 104 students. Thank you, parents and families for sending your wonderful children to Sunday School each Sunday! If you haven't already done so, please enroll your student in Sunday School. We have open enrollment throughout the school year.

We would like to thank our Church Board for providing Sunday School t-shirts to each student and staff member! These t-shirts display a beautiful Armenian cross along with the Holy Trinity Sunday School lettering.

We just had a successful All Saints Day Party and now our Sunday School students are busy preparing for the upcoming Christmas Program. Each Sunday, our students are practicing Christmas carols and memorizing their lines. The Sunday School Christmas Program will take place on Sunday, December 18, 2022, after church services in the Social Hall. Please make sure you are there to enjoy our students' performance!

Our students are continuing to learn our church sharagans and our Bible-centered curriculum. Bible Bucks are being awarded to students who attend class and participate in the lessons. Our first Bible Bucks Rewards Redemption will be on Sunday, November 20, during Sunday School. Please encourage your students to attend Sunday School each Sunday so they can keep collecting Bible Bucks and redeem them for some cool prizes

"Sunday School in Action: Mrs. Dzovig Kutumian teaching church sharagans to the Sunday School students."

On September 11, 2022, groundbreaking took place for the ANCHA monument, to be installed at the Holy Trinity Memorial Garden.

The committee is grateful to the Holy Trinity Board of Trustees and the Very Rev. Ashod Khachadourian for not only supporting the event but also granting this space for honoring and thanking Suren Saroyan, Haig Shekerjian and George Mardikian. Without the efforts of these men and the support of Aid Organizations, such as the Holy See of Cilicia and its subsidiary Prelacy Churches, Holy Trinity Armenian Apostolic Church, ARF, Armenian Relief Society, and the Armenian Citizens League, over 25,000 Armenian lives would not have been saved.
